

BZ Bank is looking for a highly motivated person seeking a challenging career as a

Junior Equity Analyst

Your responsibilities:

- Primary, fundamental equity research in a competitive environment
- Coverage of Swiss and selected international stocks across various sectors
- Investment idea generation and convincing presentation to investment professionals

Your profile:

- University degree, AZEK/CFA (enrollment) of advantage
- Initial work experience in fundamental equity research or corporate finance (eg. internship or recent career start)
- Excellent analytical capabilities
- Ability to work independently and with high intensity and accuracy
- Open mindset and creativity
- Selling and strong communication skills
- Team player
- Fluent in German as well as English

Your opportunities:

- Long term development perspectives in a successful investment boutique
- Entrepreneurial and highly dynamic environment on the edge of equity markets
- Collaboration with motivated and experienced colleagues
- Uncomplicated, cooperative working environment
- Broad and multifaceted assignments

Start:

- As soon as possible

Contact:

- Please send your application to Roger Steiner, roger.steiner@bzbank.ch

BZ Bank is an investment boutique based in Wilen/SZ. The main services include securities trading, equities brokerage, wealth management and advisory services for selected clients, asset management, as well as corporate finance activities and M&A advisory services.

June 2011 / RST